METHOD

Albariño vines up to 20-years-old planted in the prized sub-region of Salnés in various plots between the Arosa and Pontevedra estuaries, as well as along the steep banks of the river Umia. Vineyards are at altitudes of 100 to 300 metres above sea level on shallow sandy soils. Fermented in French oak barrels and matured on the fine lees for 6 months.

TASTING NOTES

Intense! Apples and stone fruits greet you, then warming aroma of toast, it's soft to taste, very unctuous and lingering

VICTUALS

Shellfish dishes such as mussels, seafood paella, Thai prawns or grilled chicken
